The Nebraska State Education Association (hereinafter referred to as the "NSEA") and the Local Education Association (hereinafter referred to as the "local affiliate") desire to set forth their respective rights and obligations regarding the collection and transmittal of NSEA/NEA dues.

Designation of the Local Affiliate as Agent

The NSEA designates the local affiliate as its authorized agent for the purpose of collecting and transmitting NEA/NSEA dues and membership data from NEA/NSEA members.

OBLIGATIONS OF THE LOCAL AFFILIATE:

NEA/NSEA Membership Dues

The local affiliate agrees to transmit to the NSEA the portion of the NSEA/NEA membership dues collected each pay period within 10 days of receipt of these funds from the employer.

Consequences of Untimely Dues Remittance

Should NSEA fail to receive the required amount within the guidelines, NSEA may receive a 2% penalty per month on any overdue balance assessed by NEA.

Any local affiliate that has not completed its NSEA and NEA dues obligation with the state affiliate by September 20 following each membership year, may be assessed a 2% penalty on the remaining balance.

Continuation of Agreement

This Agreement shall remain in force for each subsequent membership year unless terminated in writing by either party prior to September 1 of any membership year or amended by mutual consent of both parties.
