And based on the way things are trending, how likely do you think it is that your workplace(s) will be able to safely re-open for in-person teaching in the fall?

- Very likely: 18%
- Somewhat likely: 33%
- Not very likely: 34%
- Not at all likely: 15%

Based on current trends and what you know of your district plan, do you think you personally will be ready to return to work in-person in the fall?

Yes: 55%
No: 45%

Why do you feel that you will not be ready to return to work in-person in the fall?

1. General concern for your personal safety: 1162
2. Concern for students' safety: 1125
3. Concern for colleagues' safety: 1032
4. Schools do not have proper safeguards to transition back to in-person instruction: 823
5. A family member or someone you live with has an underlying health condition: 422
6. A family member or someone you live with is in a high-risk age category: 414
7. You have an underlying health concern: 404
8. Students are not ready to transition back to in-person instruction: 238
9. You are in a high-risk age category: 218

Thinking about where things will be in the fall, which of the following do you support?

- Normal reopening of schools/campuses without Coronavirus modifications: 42%
- Re-opening of schools/campuses with Coronavirus safety precautions: 52%
- Keeping schools/campuses closed and continuing distance learning until there is a vaccine: 6%

Has the COVID-19 pandemic made you more likely to retire or leave education earlier than you’d planned, more likely to work longer than you’d planned, or made no difference in your plans?

- No effect on my plans: 1%
- More likely to retire or leave education earlier than planned: 67%
- More likely to work in education longer than planned: 32%
DOUGLAS COUNTY

NSEA Return to Learn Survey Results

And based on the way things are trending, how likely do you think it is that your workplace(s) will be able to safely re-open for in-person teaching in the fall?

- Very likely: 27%
- Somewhat likely: 25%
- Not very likely: 42%
- Not at all likely: 6%

Based on current trends and what you know of your district plan, do you think you personally will be ready to return to work in-person in the fall?

- Yes: 46%
- No: 54%

Why do you feel that you will not be ready to return to work in-person in the fall?

- General concern for your personal safety: 470
- Concern for students’ safety: 448
- Concern for colleagues’ safety: 416
- Schools do not have proper safeguards to transition back to in-person instruction: 314
- A family member or someone you live with has an underlying health condition: 166
- A family member or someone you live with is in a high-risk age category: 159
- You have an underlying health concern: 152
- Students are not ready to transition back to in-person instruction: 78
- You are in a high-risk age category: 1

Thinking about where things will be in the fall, which of the following do you support?

- Normal reopening of schools/campuses without Coronavirus modifications: 3%
- Re-opening of schools/campuses with Coronavirus safety precautions: 38%
- Keeping schools/campuses closed and continuing distance learning until there is a vaccine: 59%

Has the COVID-19 pandemic made you more likely to retire or leave education earlier than you’d planned, more likely to work longer than you’d planned, or made no difference in your plans?

- No effect on my plans: 1%
- More likely to retire or leave education earlier than planned: 63%
- More likely to work in education longer than planned: 36%
You are in a high-risk age category

Students are not ready to transition back to in-person instruction

You have an underlying health concern

A family member or someone you live with is in a high-risk age category

A family member or someone you live with has an underlying health condition

Schools do not have proper safeguards to transition back to in-person instruction

Concern for colleagues' safety

Concern for students' safety

General concern for your personal safety

Based on current trends and what you know of your district plan, do you think you personally will be ready to return to work in-person in the fall?

Yes 45%

No 55%

And based on the way things are trending, how likely do you think it is that your workplace(s) will be able to safely re-open for in-person teaching in the fall?

Very likely 21%

Somewhat likely 31%

Not very likely 39%

Not at all likely 9%

Why do you feel that you will not be ready to return to work in-person in the fall?

General concern for your personal safety 214

Concern for students' safety 203

Concern for colleagues' safety 187

Schools do not have proper safeguards to transition back to in-person instruction 157

A family member or someone you live with has an underlying health condition 79

A family member or someone you live with is in a high-risk age category 76

You have an underlying health concern 62

Students are not ready to transition back to in-person instruction 53

You are in a high-risk age category 33

Thinking about where things will be in the fall, which of the following do you support?

Normal reopening of schools/campuses without Coronavirus modifications 51%

Re-opening of schools/campuses with Coronavirus safety precautions 47%

Keeping schools/campuses closed and continuing distance learning until there is a vaccine 2%

Has the COVID-19 pandemic made you more likely to retire or leave education earlier than you'd planned, more likely to work longer than you'd planned, or made no difference in your plans?

No effect on my plans 68%

More likely to retire or leave education earlier than planned 31%

More likely to work in education longer than planned 1%
And based on the way things are trending, how likely do you think it is that your workplace(s) will be able to safely re-open for in-person teaching in the fall?

- Very likely: 26%
- Somewhat likely: 22%
- Not very likely: 42%
- Not at all likely: 10%

Based on current trends and what you know of your district plan, do you think you personally will be ready to return to work in-person in the fall?

- Yes: 58%
- No: 42%

Why do you feel that you will not be ready to return to work in-person in the fall?

- Concern for students’ safety: 204
- General concern for your personal safety: 200
- Concern for colleagues’ safety: 187
- Schools do not have proper safeguards to transition back to in-person instruction: 155
- You have an underlying health concern: 72
- A family member or someone you live with has an underlying health condition: 67
- A family member or someone you live with is in a high-risk age category: 63
- You are in a high-risk age category: 40
- Students are not ready to transition back to in-person instruction: 32

Thinking about where things will be in the fall, which of the following do you support?

- Normal reopening of schools/campuses without Coronavirus modifications: 52%
- Re-opening of schools/campuses with Coronavirus safety precautions: 45%
- Keeping schools/campuses closed and continuing distance learning until there is a vaccine: 3%

Has the COVID-19 pandemic made you more likely to retire or leave education earlier than you’d planned, more likely to work longer than you’d planned, or made no difference in your plans?

- No effect on my plans: 1%
- More likely to retire or leave education earlier than planned: 42%
- More likely to work in education longer than planned: 57%