2018 Delegate Assembly

Nomination form for the 2018 Award for Teaching Excellence

Each local affiliate may nominate one member, using a selection process of the local's choosing. Nominations must include a data sheet (found on the following page) signed by the local president indicating NSEA and NEA membership and include the local president's letter of nomination.

The following documents also need to be submitted and are all to be typed using a 12 pt. or larger font, have 1" or larger margins on all sides and be double-spaced. Other specifics to each document are noted. Resume (2 pages maximum, use narrative, bulleted lists, or both); up to three letters of endorsement (2 pages each); and a detailed statement from the nominee (3,400 words). The Nominee's statement should include examples to illustrate the following five criteria areas: 1) Professional Practice; 2) Advocacy for the Association; 3) Community Engagement; 4) Leadership in Professional Development; and 5) Attention to Diversity. The statement should include specific examples to illustrate all five of the award criteria. The questions below do not need to be copied verbatim into the text. However, nominees are strongly encouraged to include headings or keywords related to the criteria.

1. What are the most successful innovations that you have introduced in your classroom or school? What strategies or methods do you use to ensure that all students achieve at a high level? How do you act as an instructional leader?
2. How has your involvement in the National Education Association or NEA affiliate(s) contributed to your success as an educator? How would you persuade a new colleague to join or become more active in the association? In what other ways do you serve as an advocate for the profession and for public education?
3. What community resources do you bring to the classroom to enhance your lessons and student achievement? What service learning projects have you conducted with your students to benefit the community?
4. What experiences or activities have been most beneficial to your professional knowledge, skills, and practice? How have you contributed to the professional development of your colleagues? How has your professional growth made a difference for your school or university, your students, and your community? Include examples from your experiences.
5. How do you address issues of diversity in your curriculum and instruction and in other interactions with students? What is the result of such efforts? How does your approach to diversity affect your work?
6. If you have not already done so, tell a story about how your approach to teaching made a difference for a student or a group of students
7. What advice would you give someone entering the profession on how to attain teaching excellence?

The NSEA Teaching Excellence Award winner will need to submit additional materials to qualify for the NEA Foundation Award for Teaching Excellence and will receive travel expenses to the NEA ceremonies in Washington, D.C., in February 2019.

All nomination materials must be received at NSEA by Friday, Feb. 16, 2018.

2018 Delegate Assembly

Great Plains Milestone Award

The NSEA's Ethnic Minority Affairs Committee (EMAC) has established, with the support of the 2011 Delegate Assembly, an annual Human & Civil Rights Award. This award is named the Great Plains Milestone Award. The goal of the award is to promote the development, advancement and protection of human and civil rights.

AWARD CRITERIA NSEA/EMAC presents the Great Plains Milestone Award to an individual or group that has promoted human and civil rights within their communities in one or more of the following areas:

- Design and actively participate in community activities
- Recruit minority members into leadership -Promote the teaching profession among future teachers
- Encourage and inspire youth to enter the teaching profession
- Work to eradicate discrimination
- Work to build effective family, school, and community partnerships
- Design and/or implement curriculum promoting human and civil rights understanding
- Provide leadership within local, state and/or national levels in programs that create awareness about issues of human & civil rights, peace, justice and international understanding.

PROCEDURES

- Must be a NSEA member if eligible for membership for the Great Plains Milestone Award.
- Nomination must be submitted on official NSEA/EMAC Great Plains Milestone Award nomination form only. Nomination Form must be typed. Only completed nomination forms will be considered. Computer generated statements may be cut off and pasted on the official form.
- Any NSEA Member, in any of the various NSEA membership categories may submit nominations.
- The nomination form must be completed and signed. Only one nomination is to be submitted on each form with the criteria clearly indicated.
- Other supportive documents, pictures, digital media and supportive information should be submitted on or before the nomination deadline February 16, 2018. Nominations must be postmarked on or before this date. Only completed forms postmarked by this date will be accepted for consideration. Nominations postmarked after the due date will not be considered.
- The NSEA/EMAC Great Plains Milestone Award Selection Committee will screen the nominations and select the Award Recipient. The NSEA Board will approve the recipient of the award. Award recipient(s) will be notified by mail and the initial recipient will be recognized at the NSEA Delegate Assembly.
- Nomination forms may be faxed to NSEA, fax number (402) 475-2630 no later than Feb. 16, 2018.

SUPPORTIVE INFORMATION/MATERIALS (up to 20 single-sided or 10 double-sided, numbered pages)

- You may also attach additional letters of support/recommendation (up to 3), documents, digital media, pictures, news clippings/flyers and other information for your nomination.
- Nominators may submit a resume for the nominee or organization. It may be up to 4 pages of Times New Roman 12 point font. An organization's information may include a fact sheet, history, and/or background information. The resume is not counted as part of the 20 pages.
- All additional supporting materials must relate to the specific awards criteria for which the individual, association, or organization is being nominated. (see the "criteria eligibility form" for each award, included in this packet.)
- Appropriate supporting materials may include newspaper, newsletter, and magazine articles; printed programs; up to 3 pages of certificates and/or citations; up to 3 letters of support; photographs; and similar materials. Do not send bulky items such as trophies, plaques, or mounted certificates, however, the submission may include one dvd, compact disc, audiotape, or videotape that is an example of the nominee's work. If a newspaper, newsletter, magazine articles, et al. Are submitted in the binder, each page counts toward your 20 pages; unless the item is placed in a protective sleeve cover, then only the front and back would be read and counted. The audiotape, compact disc (cd), dvd or videotape should not exceed 30 minutes in length.
- To help us identify and quickly return supporting materials received with award nominations, please number the items you are mailing. List and briefly describe them below. Organize material in order of criteria met and label accordingly.
