

Reports to the Assembly

School Safety Committee Report

Submitted by Paul Schulte and Lisa Hanson

School Safety is continuous work for NSEA. The Committee did not meet, however the NSEA staff lobby team worked with members to support school safety legislation. This includes resources for infrastructure, as well as the resources educators need to support students and themselves. NSEA continues to work with stakeholders across the state and nation to ensure necessary resources for the success of all children.