

Nebraska State Education Association Ethnic Minority Affairs Committee

Hispanic Report
Karla and Manuel Andazola
Saturday 25, 2017

State Events:

Nebraska Hispanic Festival

Omaha Ralston Arena

July 7-9 in Omaha @ Ralston Arena

El Museo Latino-Omaha

Nebraska was granted statehood on March 1, 1867, and the state is commemorating its Sesquicentennial during 2017. El Museo Latino is proud to be part of the rich history of Nebraska.

Nebraska Hispanic Chamber

March Networking Breakfast- March 31

Don't miss a great presentation by ICAN (Institute for Career Advancement Needs) and a fantastic opportunity to connect.

Friday, March 31 at 8:00 AM - 10:00 AM CDT

News:

Report: Nebraska has one of highest income disparities between U.S., foreign workers-Lincoln

Journal Star:

http://journalstar.com/business/agriculture/report-nebraska-has-one-of-highest-income-disparities-between-u/article_8ca97f73-140e-5ca3-bd47-4a2044926a7e.html

“...statistics that show Nebraska has the second-lowest percentage of Hispanics ages 25 and older with at least a high school diploma.”

FEBRUARY 23, 2017

Latinos and the New Trump Administration

Hispanics are divided about what a Donald Trump presidency means for their place in America, according to a Pew Research Center survey of Hispanic adults taken before his inauguration. The survey also finds that a rising share believes the situation of U.S. Hispanics is worsening and that about half of Hispanics are worried about the deportation of someone they know.

<http://www.pewhispanic.org/2017/02/23/latinos-and-the-new-trump-administration/>

BOARD APPLICATIONS OPEN

STATE BOARDS & COMMISSIONS ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

The State of Nebraska Governor's Office has released a list of current and upcoming openings on Boards and Commissions that are appointed by the Governor.

This is an excellent opportunity for civic engagement; to have your voice heard and represent your community.

If interested, please complete the online application prior to the end of the month of their deadlines. Upcoming Deadlines:

March 2017

- 1 Aeronautics Commission
- 2 Conveyance Advisory Committee
- 3 Nebraska Environmental Trust
- 4 Foster Care Advisory Committee
- 5 Commission on Judicial Qualifications
- 6 Commission on Problem Gambling
- 7 State Racing Commission
- 8 Veterans Advisory Commission

April 2017

- 1 Capitol Commission
- 2 Capitol Environs Commission
- 3 State Historical Records Advisory Board
- 4 Professional Practice Commission
- 5 ServeNebraska

Below is a list of Board positions open due to unfilled positions:

- 1 Advisory Council on Public Water Supply
- 2 Carbon Sequestration Advisory Committee
- 3 Climate Assessment Response Committee
- 4 Boundary Commission
- 5 Brand Committee
- 6 Children's Commission
- 7 Conveyance Advisory Committee
- 8 Board of County Highway & City Street Superintendents
- 9 Early Childhood Interagency Coordinating Council
- 10 Board of Emergency Medical Services
- 11 Fire Safety Appeals Board
- 12 Governor's Residence Advisory Commission
- 13 Greater Nebraska Chief Elected Officials Board
- 14 Board of Health
- 15 Commission on Indian Affairs

- 16 Judicial Nominating Commissions
- 17 Nebraska Coalition for Juvenile Justice
- 18 Natural Gas Fuel Board
- 19 Potato Development Committee
- 20 Advisory Council on Public Water Supply
- 21 ServeNebraska
- 22 Selective Service System
- 23 Women's Health Initiative Advisory Council
- 24 Governor's Youth Advisory Commission
- 25 Coordinating Commission for Postsecondary Education

JUSTICE FOR OUR NEIGHBORS-NE

FEATURING

Rosangela Godinez, Esq.
*Rural Capacity Building
Attorney &
Gladys Godinez
Community Organizer*

PRESENTS

IMMIGRATION 101
&
SAFETY PLANNING

Learn about

- how immigration policies affect your students
- how to provide important information on safety planning
- who to contact for help regarding immigration
- current school policies regarding privacy

The Lexington Middle School Auditorium

Please note: Training is voluntary.
Contact Gladys for more information:
gegodinez1817@gmail.com

4.18.17
@4:00PM