Your students: NSEA's Mission Statement has a clear vision – a great public education for every student, from preschool to high school to college.

Your paycheck and benefits: Economic security is vital to every member; salary and benefits are important to your professional and personal satisfaction. NSEA has always made enhancing and protecting your compensation and benefits a high priority.

Your rights: Educators deserve fairness in their work environment. As a public school employee, you have certain rights, and NSEA is there to defend them and to advocate for you.

Your profession: Teaching relies on skill, a body of knowledge, tradition and responsibility. NSEA is attuned to the professional lives of members, and is committed to improving the state of the profession.

Our schools: Nearly 300,000 Nebraska students depend on NSEA and its allies to support and advocate for access to a high quality public education.

Your retirement: NSEA is actively involved in assisting members to plan well in advance of retirement and continually works to improve your retirement benefits.
